

Your Rights as the Person Served

You have the right to:

- Be treated with respect and dignity
- Privacy and confidentiality
- Receive information on any medication we may prescribe
- Be safe from physical abuse or physical restraint
- Review your records
- Know what is expected and required from you
- Know what you can expect from ARP
- Know the cost of services
- Refuse services
- File a complaint
- Participate in planning your care

Questions? Call us at 828-254-2700

ARP

Addiction Recovery & Prevention